December 1, 2016

Dear Member,

Accellera Systems Initiative invites you to partner with us and sponsor worldwide events that promote and educate the design community about our standards. Events include user groups, a breakfast event at DAC, and DVCon US, DVCon India and DVCon Europe, Accellera's premiere global conferences for functional electronic design and verification.

Events feature a solid line up of keynote speakers, users and technical luminaries who discuss standards technology innovation. Members are often asked to participate.

Become a Global Sponsor
Global sponsorship is all-inclusive. Attached is the list of known events and benefits for 2017. To become a sponsor, please contact the Accellera office as indicated on the information sheet.

We look forward to a successful year of standards innovation and to your continued involvement to promote and encourage the adoption of next generation EDA and IP standards.

Best Regards,

Adam Sherer
